

The Peel Stage Saturday 13th June

1.00pm Travelling Riverside

Travelling Riverside are based on the guitar and harmonica partnership of Rob Sayles and Jon Burr. They write original songs about loss, grumpy kids and bouldering heroines. The music goes from blues and soul through folk and country to something driving and rocky.

2.00pm Faze

Faze are an independent 4 piece rock band, hailing from Bradford West Yorkshire. The band has played up and down the UK, and most recently have been doing the live front in London in support of such acts as Mark Chadwick (Levellers), Alabama Three, and Rick Witter (shed seven).

3.00pm Crosscut Saw

Critically acclaimed blues band Crosscut Saw consist of front man Alex Eden on vocals, electric guitar and harmonica, Richard Ferdinando on Drums and Richard Green (Somatics, Ultrasound) on bass. In addition to their own authentically crafted material, Crosscut Saw pay tribute to such greats as Muddy Waters, RL Burnside and Buddy Guy.

4.00pm The Yalla Yallas

5.00pm Rudiments

6.00pm Shettters, Shorty and the Half Poles

Shettters, Shorty and The Half Poles are Damian Foy, Andrew Foy, Samantha Foy and Anthony Brannan, fusing together a mixture of rock/blues and folk into original tracks based around there experiences, all Bradford born and bred, their influences range from Pink Floyd to Iron Maiden to The Stone Roses.

7.00pm Wilful Missing

Wilful Missing are a great experience live or on record, with beautifully arranged songs featuring Mandolin, Cello, Acoustic Guitar, Keyboards, Accordion, Bagpipes, Cajon, Drums, Bass, Smacked Electric Guitar, Penny Whistle and Albert's Whistling!

"From contagiously happy-go-lucky keyboard licks and cheery vocals to piercing, tortured guitar riffs and soulful wails ... managing to be eclectic yet consistent thanks to the continuity provided by Sam Kipling's distinctive vocals."

The Peel Stage Sunday 14th June

1.00pm Marmozets

The Marmozets are a 5 piece band hailing from Bingley, West Yorkshire. After winning 3 local Battle of the bands competitions, they have made an impact at a national level by winning the Music for Youth Rock Section, which culminated in the band performing at the World's largest youth music festival at the Royal Albert Hall in front of 6000 people!

2.00pm Hundred Dollar Cigar

Hundred Dollar Cigar, from Bradford and have been together for 5 years. They love to play live and always try to keep things new and exciting whilst at the same time taking influence and inspiration from great musicians we love and respect like Cream, Hendrix, Chili Peppers, The Mars Volta and many others.

3.00pm Artworks Rappers- John (Tapestry), Jake (Lunar C), Chris (wydeboi)

4.00pm Just Defy

A rap/rock/electronica quintet hailing from Bradford, West Yorkshire, fuse the aggression and anti-establishment 'fury of Rage Against the Machine with electronic sounds and tunage that will make your hairs stand on end. Writing the most out-right defiant music to hit the music industry at a time where one music style carries 100's of bands with its genre.

5.00pm Dead Message

This northern four-piece aim to get you dancing with the best pop-punk tunes possible. Combining catchy riffs with stick-in-the-head choruses, these guys aim to reach as many people as they can. To achieve this end they gig all over the country, going so far as London last year and they put their all into each show.

6.00pm DJ Sinical

The multi-talented DJ Sinical is one of the most talked about turntablists in the UK. He's been smashing clubs and competitions alike for over nine years and is also an accomplished music producer. His scratching and mixing skills coupled with his diversity of styles has kept audiences in awe and earned him residencies for some of the most renowned club nights in the country.

7.00pm Meet Me In Vegas

Meet Me In Vegas, are the creators of 'Splash Pop' - a combination of new electro rock and that 80s pop sound. Splash Pop has been featured in local newspapers as word about the band spreads. They produce music the old school way, in an attic in the small town of Sutton In Craven, and will be headlining show at the newly opened club 'The Hop' in Wakefield.