

Mela Fringe Events

There's more to Bradford Mela than just the festival weekend!

In recent years many local bars, clubs and venues have been inspired by Bradford Mela to hold their own celebratory events alongside the main weekend event. These have included some of same artists from the festival weekend performing in indoor venues, and local bands and DJ's playing global rhythms into the night.

Melamatic is a 'fringe festival' organised entirely independently of the Bradford Mela Festival. The City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council has no control over, and accepts no liability for, the content of the Melamatic website, and does not endorse any events, services or opinions promoted on their website.

He has produced, written and presented a number of hi-octane radio shows for community radios, including breakfast shows and specialist music shows. He has also appeared on TV and film, speed dating in "It's A Wonderful Afterlife".

- "Hugely likeable and assured young comic, one of the brightest new talents around" - Timeout
- "His fast-paced style and use of audio and visual effects marks him out as a star of the future" - Eastern Eye

- Christian Ancliff

Darshan has been performed stand-up since university, developing a style of telling stories inter-woven with set pieces, one liners and a uniquely abnormal take on the normal. He's performed on the same bill as Pappy's Fun Club, Dan Antopolski, Andy Zaltzman, Simon Munnery, Dylan Moran, Thomas Craine and many more.
