

Bradford Mela 2009

Bradford Mela 2009 was held on Saturday 13th and Sunday 14th June 2009

2009 was a big year for Bradford Mela when it celebrates its 'Coming of Age' - marking the 21st anniversary of the original Bradford Mela.

The Bradford Mela in 1988 was the first event of its kind in Europe and this years event will see the same family friendly mix of quality outdoor entertainment, tasty foods, street theatre, market stalls, children's activities and funfair rides that made the first event so special.
